Junior Board Program

L.I.F.E. promotes teaching the youth leadership skills and community service by having a L.I.F.E. Jr. Board composed of high school students. These young ambassadors assist in promoting L.I.F.E.'s mission while contributing to the community through community service by hosting blanket drives for senior citizens, food drives to benefit the local food banks, pet adoptions, amongst other projects. Furthermore, this youth ambassador program gives the students a voice within the organization to ensure our services address their needs and our program’s evaluation, design, implementation and to help define the program outcomes relevant to them.
