All policies of insurance delivered to the Landlord must contain a provision that the company writing said policy will give to the Landlord a minimum of thirty (30) days notice in writing in advance of any cancellation or lapse or the effective date of any reduction in the amounts of insurance. All commercial general liability, property damage and other casualty policies shall be written as primary policies, not contributing with and not in excess of coverage which the Landlord may carry.

10.04. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary within this Article X, the Tenant's obligations to carry the insurance provided for herein may be brought within the coverage of a so-called blanket policy or policies of insurance carried and maintained by the Tenant, provided, however, that the Landlord shall be named as Loss Payee as to the building and premises thereunder as its interest may appear and that the coverage afforded the Landlord will not be reduced or diminished by reason of the use of such blanket policy of insurance and provided further that the requirements set forth herein are otherwise satisfied. The Tenant agrees to permit the Landlord during Tenant’s regular business hours to inspect the policies of insurance of the Tenant covering risks upon the premises for which policies or copies thereof are required to be delivered to the Landlord.

10.05. Tenant shall, at its own expense, comply with all requirements (including the installation of fire extinguishers or automatic dry chemical extinguishing systems) of the insurance underwriters and any governmental authority having jurisdiction thereover, necessary for the maintenance of reasonable fire and extended coverage insurance for the premises.

ARTICLE XI. DAMAGE BY CASUALTY

11.01 Tenant shall give immediate written notice to Landlord of any damage caused to the Leased Premises by fire or other casualty.

11.02 Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Tenant shall have the right of terminating this Lease Agreement in the event that the Leased Premises shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty insurable under standard fire and extended coverage insurance. In the event, Tenant does not elect to terminate this lease as herein provided, Tenant shall proceed with reasonable diligence and at its sole cost and expense, to rebuild and repair the Leased Premises. If the building in which the Leased Premises are located shall be destroyed and rendered untenable to an extent in excess of fifty per cent (50%) of the floor area by a casualty covered by Tenant's insurance, then Tenant may elect either to terminate this lease or to proceed to rebuild and repair the Leased Premises. Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord of such election within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of such casualty and if it elects to rebuild and repair shall proceed to do so with reasonable diligence and at its sole cost and expense.

11.03 Tenant's obligation to rebuild and repair under this Article shall in any event be limited to restoring the Leased Premises to substantially the condition in which the same existed prior to the casualty, and Tenant agrees that, promptly after the completion of such work by Tenant, it will proceed with reasonable diligence and at its sole cost and expense to rebuild, repair and restore its signs, fixtures, equipment, and the other items of Tenant.

11.04 Tenant agrees that during any period of reconstruction or repair of the Leased Premises it will continue the operation of its business within the Leased Premises to the extent practicable. During the period from the occurrence of the casualty until Tenant's repairs are completed, the rental shall be abated on the square footage damaged by fire or other casualty.

ARTICLE XII. EMINENT DOMAIN

12.01. If more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the floor area of the Leased Premises should be taken for any public or quasi-public use under any governmental law, ordinance, or regulation or by right of eminent domain or by private purchase in lieu thereof, this lease shall terminate and the rent shall abate for the unexpired portion of this lease, effective on the date physical possession is taken by the condemning authority. If less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the floor area of the Leased Premises should be taken as aforesaid, this lease shall not terminate. Following such partial taking, Landlord shall make all necessary repairs or alterations as necessary to make the Leased Premises as architectural whole. Such repairs and/or alterations must be undertaken by Landlord within thirty (30) days after condemning authority takes physical possession of the partial taking. All repairs and alterations undertaken by Landlord must be completed within one hundred twenty (120) days from when the condemning authority takes physical possession of the partial taking.

12.02. Landlord is entitled to receive and retain the entire award in any award in any condemnation proceedings, except for any portion attributable to Tenant's fixtures, and relocation costs which Tenant is entitled to receive and retain. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit Tenant from making a separate claim, against the condemning authority. The termination of this Lease will not affect the right to this award.

ARTICLE XIII. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING BY TENANT

13.01. Tenant may not assign or in any manner transfer this lease or any estate or interest therein; however, Tenant may sublet the Leased Premises or any part thereof; or grant license, concession, or other right of occupancy of any portion of the Leased Premises with other third parties with the prior written consent of the Landlord. Sub-lessees must engage in providing goods and/or services that promote the Permitted Use in Webb County. Any assignment of this Lease Agreement without Landlord's written consent is voidable by Landlord. If Tenant assigns this Lease Agreement, Tenant shall remain liable for all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease Agreement, regardless of whether the assignment or sublease is made with or without the consent of Landlord.

13.02. In the event of the transfer and assignment by Landlord of its interest in the Leased Premises said assignee shall expressly assume Landlord's obligation hereunder and Tenants leasehold shall remain in full force and effect.

13.03. Tenant shall not mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber the Leased Premises.

ARTICLE XIV. TAXES AND OTHER LEVIES

14.01. Landlord shall pay and fully discharge all taxes, special assessments, and governmental charges, if any, of every character imposed during the term of this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be liable for all taxes levied and/or assessed against personal property, furniture, equipment and trade fixtures placed by Tenant in the Leased Premises.

ARTICLE XV. DEFAULT BY TENANT AND REMEDIES

15.01. The following events shall be deemed to be events of default by Tenant under this lease:

(1) Tenant shall fail to pay any installment of rent hereunder and such failure shall continue for a period of twenty (20) business days after written notice to Tenant.

(2) Tenant shall fail to comply with any term, provision, or covenant of this lease, other than the payment of rent, and shall not cure such failure within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof to Tenant.

On the occurrence of any such event of default, Landlord shall have the option to pursue the following remedies with written notice and demand:

(a) Terminate this lease, in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender the Leased Premises to Landlord, and if Tenant fails to do so, Landlord may without prejudice to any other remedy which it may have for possession or arrearage in rent, enter and take possession of the Leased Premises and expel or remove Tenant and any other person who may be occupying said premises or any part thereof. If Tenant does not vacate the Leased Premises following termination of the Lease Agreement, Tenant shall become a tenant at will and must vacate the Leased Premises on receipt of written notice from Landlord. No holding over by Tenant, whether with or without consent of Landlord, shall extend the term of this Lease. Tenant shall pay Landlord for any and all damages caused by the holdover.

Pursuit of the foregoing remedy shall not preclude pursuit of any other remedies herein provided by law, nor shall pursuit of any other such remedy constitute an election of remedies of a forfeiture or waiver of any rent due to Landlord hereunder or of any damages accruing to Landlord by reason of the violation of any of the terms, provisions, and covenants herein contained. Forbearance by Landlord to enforce one or more of the remedies herein provided on an event of default shall not be deemed or constructed to constitute a waiver of such default. In determining the amount of loss or damage which Landlord may suffer by reason of termination of this lease or the deficiency arising by reason of any reletting by Landlord as above provided, allowance shall be made for the expense of repossession.

ARTICLE XVI. HOLDING OVER

16.01. In the event Tenant remains in possession of the Leased Premises after the expiration of this lease and without the execution of a new lease, it shall be deemed to be occupying said premises as a tenant at will from month to month at a rental equal to the last applicable monthly rental and under the same conditions.

ARTICLE XVII. SUBORDINATION

17.01. Tenant accepts this lease subject and subordinate to any mortgage, Deed of Trust, or other lien presently existing on the Leased Premises, and to any renewals and extension thereof. Landlord is hereby irrevocably vested with full power and authority to subordinate this lease to any mortgage, Deed of Trust, or other lien hereafter placed on the Leased Premises, and Tenant agrees on demand to execute such further instruments subordinating this lease as Landlord may request, provided such subordination shall be on the express condition that this lease shall be recognized by the mortgage, and the rights of Tenant shall remain in full force and effect during the term of this lease so long as Tenant shall continue to perform all of the covenants and conditions of this lease.

ARTICLE XVIII. NOTICES.

18.01. Where any notice is required or permitted hereunder, such notice shall be in writing.
