Empowering Students to make Positive Choices WICOR COUNTY, TEXAS

Champions Make Choices... Choices Make Champions!
BY  DEPUTY

Marc Mero and The Champion of Choices Production Team are excited to share our message with your school. The content of the "Choices" program focuses on many timely and significant challenges students experience including bullying, peer pressure, substance abuse prevention, goal setting, dreaming big, and achieving your highest potential.

During a 50-minute production, Marc presents a powerful, candid and moving message that encourages students and adults to make meaningful choices, set goals and pursue their passions. Marc's personal and entertaining stories about his own positive and negative choices inspire students to choose to be champions.

Please sign, date, and email back the Event Confirmation Form and Acknowledgement Letter, which provide us with your school's specific event details. An invoice will be forthcoming to secure your date with a deposit or full payment. Please make all Payments to Champion of Choices.

We look forward to inspiring, entertaining, and motivating your students and faculty. Please call us if you have questions. Have a POZ day!

Respectfully,

Kimberly Larsen
